LOCAL SELF BRANCH.

SIR,

with reference to Government Order No. L.3345-7/Med.71-21-10 dated 9th December 1921 accepting the endowment made by the late Dr. C. A. Nanjappa and directing that as the Manager Mysore Bank has agreed to sell $6\frac{1}{2}\%$ State Loan Bonds at $97\frac{1}{2}\%$ the Comptroller may make necessary arrangements for purchasing bonds of the face value of - Rs5,125/- and transferring the same to the Senior Surgeon, I have the honor to point out that no officer in the State except the Dewan of Mysore, is entitled to hold bonds in his official capacity. The bonds when purchased have therefore to be got endorsed in favour of the Dewan of Mysore and kept in the Comptroller's custody, the half yearly interest being paid to the Senior Surgeon by means of Trust Interest Payment Orders.

As regards the direction in para 2 of the order that the Manager of the Mysore Bank has agreed to sell $6\frac{1}{2}\%$ bonds at $97\frac{1}{2}\%$ and that I may make arrangements for purchasing bonds of the face value of - Rs5,125/- I would suggest for the consideration of Government the desirability of investing the endowment in $6\frac{1}{4}$ per cent instead of in 6½ per cent state loan bonds. 6½% bonds of the face value of Rs5,125/- will yield only an annual interest of Rs332-2-0 while 6¼% bonds of the face value of Rs5,887½ may be purchased for the same amount at the prevailing market rate, which is 80-85 yielding an annual interest of Rs368/- or an increase of Rs35/- which may be utilized for other purposes or for enhancing the number or amount of scholarships agreeably to the wishes of the donor. It is, therefore seen that the latter investment gives to the endowment a decided increase of about Rs35/- The objects of the donor will also be better fulfilled if more money is made available for scholarships.

I therefore solicit orders of Government if Mysore State Loan bonds may be purchased by meso as to secure the maximum benefit to the endowment and when they are purchased if they may be got endorsed in favour of the Dewan of Mysore and kept in safe custody in this office. The cheque for Rs5,000/- may be kindly sent to this office for realisation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. A. M. Nay Theij
Comptroller.
